OxBlue Receives Atlanta Business Chronicle's 2020 Best Places to Work Award

Sept. 28, 2020 (ATLANTA, Ga.) - OxBlue, an Atlanta-based technology company and a leader in professional construction camera services, recently received the Atlanta Business Chronicle's 2020 Best Places to Work award as a large company, placing 12th. In previous years, OxBlue was considered a medium company and ranked 13th in 2018 and 14th in 2019. This is the fourth nomination for the company since 2016.

The 17th annual event took place virtually on Sept. 24, 2020. In order to be considered for the award, companies must first be nominated and are then rated based on work environment, people practices and other matrices. Only 103 companies were recognized out of thousands of businesses in the Atlanta metro area.

"As we continue to grow, our employees remain OxBlue's top priority," said Chandler McCormack, CEO of OxBlue. "We work best when we're safe, happy and healthy, which has taken on a new meaning during the pandemic. Our employees' spirit and ability to adapt has allowed us to succeed in the face of adversity. It's an honor to work with the team at OxBlue and for the entire organization to be recognized for those efforts."

"I joined OxBlue just before the pandemic hit, and have now officially been working with the company remotely for longer than I was ever in office," said Rachel Dudas, Payroll & HR administrator at OxBlue. "The transition to working from home has been seamless, and the flow of communication from our leadership has been consistent, truthful, and sincere. I feel extremely connected to my colleagues - some of whom I met before leaving the office to work from home, and others I have met since they joined remotely. I love my job at OxBlue, and can't wait until we can all be together under one roof again."

OxBlue has received numerous additional awards for its commitment to its employees, including:

- The Atlanta Journal-Constitution Top Workplaces
- Atlanta's Best & Brightest Companies to Work For®
- Best & Brightest Companies to Work For in the Nation®
- The Nation's Best and Brightest in Wellness®
